

College Completion Rates in Appalachia, 1980

(County Rates)

A college completion rate is the percentage of adults, 25 years and over, completing 4 years of college or more. The map uses natural breaks in the distribution to organize the data into groups of common values.

